Ally Bremer is an Associate in Miller Johnson's Corporate / Mergers and Acquisitions practice group representing businesses and providers in commercial transactions, behavioral healthcare, and healthcare regulatory compliance matters.

Mergers and Acquisitions

Ally provides legal counsel to private equity buyers, strategic buyers, sellers, and management in all types of acquisition, disposition and investment transactions. Ally supports clients in commercial contracts and agreements, entity formation, licensing and tax issues as well as general corporate law and governance matters.

Healthcare

Ally supports for profit and non-profit business entities including healthcare practitioners, private equity firms, and physician groups as they navigate mergers, acquisitions, and contractual arrangements. She also advises clients on regulatory issues associated with healthcare transactions, such as licensure, HIPAA privacy and security, fraud and abuse risks, and the corporate practice of medicine.

Ally is Certified in Healthcare Compliance (CHC), with knowledge of relevant regulations and expertise in compliance processes sufficient to assist the healthcare industry organizations in understanding and addressing legal obligations, and promote organizational integrity through the operation of effective compliance programs.
