

Janet Griswold

PARALEGAL

Detroit

griswoldj@millerjohnson.com

T 313.672.6921

Janet Griswold is a highly skilled and dedicated paralegal in the firm's Intellectual Property practice group. Drawing from over a decade of experience, she has become a trusted professional in the world of intellectual property law.

Janet provides all of the following services to our clients:

- File and prosecute trademark applications with the United States Patent & Trademark Office
- Manage day-to-day maintenance of global trademark portfolios across a wide spectrum of industries
- Review trademark use issues and conduct associated research
- Review watch notices and manage contentious matters
- Obtain document legalization in support of prosecution and maintenance of trademarks
- File and prosecute copyright applications
- Domain name management

Professional Associations

Janet is a member of the International Trademark Association.

Practice Areas

- Intellectual Property

Professional Associations

- International Trademark Association

Education

- Oakland University, A.B.A. Paralegal Certificate
- Michigan State University, B.A.

Education

Janet received her American Bar Association Paralegal Certificate from Oakland University. She received her Bachelors degree from Michigan State University.

