Chelsea L. Kendziorski is an associate attorney in the firm's Litigation practice with an emphasis on Medical Recovery representation for health care providers. Ms. Kendziorski works on behalf of medical service providers including hospitals and physician groups seeking insurance reimbursement on patient accounts. Prior to joining Miller Johnson, Ms. Kendziorski worked in general civil collections and insurance defense.

Med Recovery Litigation

Ms. Kendziorski litigates complex no-fault provider Personal Injury Protection (PIP) and other insurance reimbursement cases. She conducts depositions of no-fault claims adjusters and expert witnesses, patients, service providers, and various fact witnesses to investigate coverage issues and ensure prompt payment of outstanding accounts.

She evaluates medical records, accident reconstruction reports, independent medical evaluations and expert testimony while consulting with clients to assess strengths and weaknesses of various cases and recommended courses of action. She stays up to date on the latest case law analyzing priority, domicile, constructive ownership, unlawful taking and other entitlement issues, which allows her to obtain favorable results for clients, often including interest and fees.
