

Thomas R. Quilter III

SENIOR COUNSEL

Detroit

quiltert@millerjohnson.com

T 313.672.6947

Thomas R. Quilter III is a Senior Counsel attorney in Miller Johnson's Private Client practice focusing on business planning, corporate law and estate planning.

Practice related activities

Mr. Quilter acts as a business counselor and confidant to business owners and entrepreneurs. He advises clients on business formation, operations and succession planning. He has represented clients in numerous merger and acquisition transactions. He also has a significant practice in estate planning for high net worth individuals and business owners.

Professional Affiliations, Activities and Honors

Mr. Quilter is active in the Financial and Estate Planning Council of Metropolitan Detroit Inc. and served on many boards of charitable and civic organizations. He has a long affiliation with the prestigious Detroit Athletic Club, having served as a board member, committee chair and president.

Education, Bar and Court Admissions, Clerkships

Mr. Quilter earned his juris doctorate and a master of laws at Wayne State University, and a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from John Carroll

Practice Areas

- Private Client
- Business and Corporate
- Estate Planning

Education

- LL.M., Wayne State University
- J.D., Wayne State University
- B.A., John Carroll University

Bar Admissions

- Michigan, 1968

University.

Mr. Quilter was admitted to the Michigan Bar in 1968.

