

Stephanie Robinson has over 7 years' experience working on employment and family based immigration matters.

Stephanie provides assistance to the immigration practice group in all areas, but is specifically focused on employment based and business related immigration. Her expertise include non-immigrant including H-1B visa, L-1 visa, O-1 visa and TN Visa. She also has experience in PERM and immigrant visa applications, as well as, adjustment of status.

Stephanie has a great understanding of the J-1 Waiver application process and experience working with physician based immigration matters. Stephanie is committed to assisting our client's in complex immigration matters and providing immigration solutions to employers.

Practice Areas

- Immigration

Education

- Grand Valley State University, B.A., 2006

